Mr John Summers
(Awaiting Signature)

I want to address a point made in the submission made by the DOD, January 2023.

In there submission it was stated that the roving piquet's patrolled with "pick handles."

In 1985, serving with SPT Coy 6RAR, when I was tasked with this duty, both myself and PTE K. Smith were armed with SLR's and live ammunition. We carried 3 magazines of live rounds. The SLR' weapon state was loaded.

Our ROE were, to challenge suspected CT 3 times and if there was no compliance to the challenge we were authorised to open fire with no further orders required to do so.

The ROE that I operated under did not mention anything about "doubt" or aiming to "wound." Only that our authority ended at the perimeter fence unless ordered otherwise by a superior officer.
